$100,000 Pledged For U. S. Memorial Hospital at Rheims

American Fund for French Wounded Starts Campaign; President Tells of Nation-Wide Work

An American Memorial Hospital in the city of Rheims is to be established by the American Fund for French Wounded. It is hoped that through this hospital American mothers and fathers will be able to perpetuate the memories of the boys who gave their lives for France. In a bronze tablet at the head of each endowed bed will be the name of the American soldier, with his command, and the date of his death. Each endowment is to cost $6,000.

The hospital was guaranteed at a meeting of the National Executive Council of the American Fund for French Wounded yesterday at the home of Mrs. G. Ledyard Blair, 2 East Seventieth Street. One hundred thou-sand dollars was pledged by the three largest chapters of the organization -- Boston, New York and Chicago. Further contributions will enable the fund to enlarge the hospital.

Present at the meeting were Mrs. Schuyler Van Rensselaer, national Nevin, honorary president; Mrs. Charles M. Chapin, New York, chairman; Miss Edith Bangs, of Boston; Mrs. Russell Tyson, of Chicago; Caarles W. Ames, of St. Paul; Mrs. Walter Phelps Bliss, William L. Staut, counsel for the organization, and Mrs. Blair. chairman of the fund; Mrs. Elthelbert Nevin, honorary president; Mrs.

counsel for the organization, and Mrs. Blair.

The meeting was called to meet Mrs. Isabelle Lathrop, president of the organization, who returned to this country.

The City of Rheims has promised sixteen acres of land in that portion of the city which is to be rebuilt as a war memorial. For the present, however, we are to use the one wing of the old civilian hospitals. The French people will supply the doctors and nurses; we furnish the money and supplies.

"Forty per cent of the children in the devastated regions are victims of tuber-culosis, due to malnutrition and over-crowding in the refugee centres. The little children practically have not state that the American Commission for Relief in France and Belgium expects to finish its work this summer.

"Forty per cent of the children in the devastated regions are victims of tuber-culosis, due to malnutrition and over-crowding in the refugee centr is the number which will be guaranteed by the initial fund of $100,000. Many organizations have already cabled that they were interested and whished to coöperate, perhaps in endowing an additional pavilion or a chair of medicine in a medical college. American mothers and fathers, longing to build some more permanent memorial to their sons than a mere gravestone, have already promised the first thirty beds.

"Rheims is peculiarly appropriate for the site of this hospital, as it is in the heart of the region where most of our strikes in the Ruhr industrial region are extending, according to dispatches from Essen to-day. Thirty thousand men are reported out.

At a meeting of the strikers at Langendreer, near Dortmund, on Thursday, demands were formulated including the formation of a revolutionary workmen's guard, the establishment of political and economic relations with the Russian Soviet government and the disarmament of the police throughout Germany.

Hotel Lorraine

The Alsace Room at the Hotel Lorraine, Fifth Avenue and Fortyfifth Street, fully deserves the enviable reputation it is gaining for the food it serves to its many management to serve only the best and gratify the every wish of its satisfied clientele. The quiet refinement of this popular hotel is most attractive for families desiring the finest and best of apartments and rooms.

Zuch's Restaurant, at the corner of Thirty-eighth Street and Broadway, has become so popular with those who appreciate an excellent meal well served that the manage-ment has been compelled to have more space. A new room has been opened, which has an entrance on Broadway.

Fountain Inn

The 1919 season of Fountain Inn, n the Merrick Road at Lynbrook, Long Island, will be ushered in next Long Island, will be ushered in next Saturday evening. April 5. The inn, under the direction of Messrs. Thiessen & Hennigsen, has been entirely redecorated and will be conducted under the personal management of "Henri," recently of the Pennsylvania Hotel and well known to Broadwayites. Dancing facilities will be the outstanding attraction, besides emphasizing the high standard of food and service under his supervision. Motorists will find a novel innovation here, with the introduction of tea dansants during the afternoops from 3 to 6 o'clock daily.

Pelham Heath Inn

After a successful winter's business Pelham Heath Inn, on the Pelham Parkway, is ready for the advent of the real motoring season.
Aside from its exquisite cuisine, the inn has the distinction of being the most unique dining and dancing establishment on motor parkways. H. most unique dining and dancing establishment on motor parkways. H. Douglas Brown, manager, who is ever alert of the comforts of motorists, looks for a "big" touring season. "With the war now practically at an end, people will surely want this summer to be one of recreation, and what is more appealing than motoring," states Mr. Brown.

Shelburne Hotel

The Shelburne Hotel, at Brighton Beach, opened its doors yesterday This resort, which was closed this winter, due to the war, will remain open throughout the year, as it has been in previous years. An elaborate new revue is now in preparation which will be presented at an early date. Music and dancing are a part of the Shelburne just as are its spacious verandas and beautiful rooms overlooking the vast Atlantic.

Reisenweber's

Sophie Tucker and her Six Kings of Syncopation are making the Sophie Tucker Room at Reisenweber's one of the most enjoyable weber's one of the most enjoyable places in town. Cosmopolitan New York and a prenounced tinge of Bohemia characterize this meeting place of pleasure seekers. Miss Tucker, on every Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, conducts "Freak Nights," which furnish a unique source of entertainment.

Forty-second Street, will be a musical fête, as an exceptionally fine programme has been arranged for this event.

Miss Miriam Garland, a youthful soprano possessing a voice of singular sweetness and tonal purity, will again sing, by unanimous request, 'Lo! Hear the Gentle Lark,' the rendition of which was received with such acclaim at last week's concert.

An added feature this week will be the appearance of Miss Ruth Jones, who has won some renown on the concert stage; Max Rosenzweig, violin virtuoso; Riccardo Venanzi, tenor, and C. Carroll Clark, barytone, are also on the programme. In addition to the entertainment there will, as usual, he dancing on the unique Revolving Floor between courses of quality food quietly and efficiently served.

Thomas Healy's Golden Glades Sensational ice skating, star performers, a beauty chorus gorgeously costumed, are some of the seasoning in "The 1919 Victory Revue" in the Golden Glades at Thomas Healy's, Breadway and Sixty-sixth Street. Nightly audiences that occupy capacity table reservations, and acting as censors, pass the entire performance with enthusiasms Elsie and Paulson, in the Apache dance on skates, are bewildering. Cathleen Pope, queen of the ice: the Misses Judels and Peterson and the Famous Skating Sextet score nightly in their numbers on the rink and are a treat to the eyes of diners. "On the Carpet," the musical section of this stupendous show, which interrupts the ice skating exhibitions, is as bright and pleasing Tertainment as the most mirth seeking BREAKFAST LUNCHEON APTERNOON TEA diner could desire. Helen Hardick, Bly Brown, Yvonne Darle, Swann Wood and Harry Francis, in the "anti-prohibition" number, add considerably to its amusing qualities. The show is presented twice nightly, at 7:30 and again at 11:30. The special Sunday table d'hôte dinner show is proving a magnet for the epicurean on Sunday evenings. An elaborate menu of ten courses at $2.50 per cover cannot fail to appeal, especially with the present high cost of food products. The ever popular balconnades on the third floor continue to draw the dancing crowds nightly.
